Orientation Programme

An orientation program for B.Tech & polytechnic first year students was held on 11/08/2014 & 12/08/2014 respectively in the premises of GIET to make them aware about the college, its rules and regulations, certain societies like Literary society, Sham-e-Gateway, different cells working in college to look after the students' problem like Women Cell, disciplinary committee and anti-ragging committee. Students along with their parents visited the college on this orientation day program. They were really enthralled by the motivational lecture by an eminent speaker Mr. Asit Gosh who gave them the mantra of success in life to be different from others. All the HOD's intimated the students about the departmental faculty members and labs etc. Principal, Dr. Vijay Mittal addressed the students on that very day to be the part of GIET family and inspired them with his motivational speech.

TRIP TO SHIMLA

Sham-e-Gateway club is working in its full bloom as per the interest of students. Students presented different poems, shayari, jokes on the spot. Students as well as faculty enjoyed it to the fullest. These kinds of programs give vent to the imagination of artistic students.

Three days tour to Shimla was organized by the management for students from 26/9/14 - 29/09/2014. Trip was enjoyed equally by students as well as faculty. The best part was the 2nd day in Kufri and DJ night in the hotel. All were enthralled by the beautiful scenery of Shimla. The pleasant weather conditions made us to stay there for long but we had to be back to the pavilion.

Teacher's Day Celebration

It is well said a teacher can be a great motivator, mentor, a friend & a parent as well. And no one better than Dr. Radhakrishnan can exemplify the above. As this day reminds us about the contribution of Dr. Radhakrishnan in the field of education who was not only an academician but also a source of motivation to all the teachers throughout the world. To make the teachers feel special, students made this day unforgettable by showcasing their talent in the Giet Amphi Theatre 'Alankaar'. Students showed their love, affection to all faculty members by performing certain events even in critical weather conditions. Students individually enthralled the teachers by giving titles, cards and gifts. Different activities to entertain not only the faculty but our Principal sir and executive chairman Ar.Rakesh Aggarwal ji were also the part of this program.

One day Trip to Adventure Island in Delhi Metro walk

Apart from academics, it's a trend in GIET to celebrate each and every occasion to the fullest. Tour/Trip/Excursions keeps everyone feel free and relaxed from the routine of daily life which is full of stress and burden. In GIET, the staff Club throws Lunch on festivals, and certain other celebration like New Year eve, Christmas eve and lohri, Makar Sakranti, Holi, Diwali etc.

FRESHER'S PARTY

26th Sept., 2014 was rocked by students in the form of freshers party. The 1st year students were welcomed by their senior students on red carpet with drum beats. Program started with the lamp lighting by Chairman Sh.H.P.Mangla ji, Executive Chairman, Ar. Rakesh Aggarwal ji and Principal, Dr. Vijay Mittal ji. Fresher students rocked the stage by their ramp walk, dance performances etc. Performances by seniors as well left the audience spell bound. Different titles like Mr. & Ms. Eve, Mr. & Ms. Perfect, Mr. & Ms. Awesome and Mr. & Ms. Fresher etc. were awarded to the students. All enjoyed the party with full enthusiasm accompanied by dinner and Dj Night.

GROUP DISCUSSION

A group discussion competition was held in college on 14/10/2014. Different teams participated in the competition from all branches of B. Tech and Polytechnic. Topic of discussion was “WOMEN EXPLOITATION”. The session was really amazing and students came with their vibrant ideas in an effective way. Overall the discussion was effective and full of new ideas. Mechanical students from B.Tech got first position.

DIWALI CELEBRATION

College faculty enjoyed a lot on the function arranged by the management on the Eve of Diwali. A cricket match was held among teaching and non-teaching staff. All the teams performed really well. Non-teaching staff won the match. Mr. Sandeep got the man of match trophy for performing well in the match. The entire faculty member enjoyed the match to its fullest. Hunky picking event was one of the best comic contrivance for all which was followed by the lunch organized for the faculty members. It proved to be a great day for all.

PAPER PRESENTATION

To give vent to the talent of students, to remove the hesitation, to give confidence and to develop leadership qualities in students, GIET gives platform time to time through different activities. Recently a paper presentation competition was held in Bhaskar Hall. Students performed well, co-ordinated the program in an effective manner, Vipin (CSE 1st year) presented his ideas in an effective way on ‘Ethical Hacking’ which appealed the audience. Soni (CSE 1st year) also succeeded in putting her impression through very demanding topic ‘Corruption’. Students presented their ideas on different topics like environmental pollution, aero space etc.

Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (National Unity Day)

Gateway institute of Engineering and Technology Celebrated 'National Unity Day' (Rashtriya Ekta Diwas) on 31/10/14 in honour of Sardar Patel contribution to the Unity, Safety and Security of the Nation. Different events like group discussion, speech, skit, slogan writing was held in the college premises. Programme opened with the remembrance of Sardar Patel in the form of lamp lighting and by throwing light on Sardar Patel's life and his contribution towards the Nation.

Events gets its grace by the presence of executive chairman, Ar. Rakesh Aggarwal, honourable principal, Dr. Vijay Mittal, all heads of the department and faculty members. First year students got first position in group discussion and Arun from CSE second year secured first position in Speech. Students performed well and spread message of Unity, Safety and Security to the audience. Programme ended with pledge by Principal, Dr. Vijay Mittal and National Anthem in respect of our Nation.
