

Anurag Roy
Professor Emeritus

Graduated from the School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi in 1976 and completed his Research work on "Energy and Environment Management for Luxury Hotels" in 2010 from SPA, New Delhi

He has Professional and Architectural teaching experience of 4 decades and has headed a number of prestigious institutes of Architecture in India and has passionately contributed to the betterment of Architectural Education through innovative strategies.

He has presented and published a number of National and International papers in India and abroad including SAARCH Conference, Karachi, Pakistan 2004, Archasia at Dhaka, Bangla Desh 2004 PLEA Conference Lebanon 2002

During his professional practice, he has been involved with prestigious National and International Projects to include Interiors of Indira Gandhi International Airport, Delhi, Vigyan Bhawan for the UNIDO Conference, Taj Group of Hotels across India, Palace for the Amir of Qatar.

Resource Person: QIP (Quality Improvement Programs for Teachers) To evaluate current methods of teaching and explore new techniques for enriching the world of Architectural education.

Nominated by the Council of Architecture as Expert Member to specifically deal with matters related to Energy Conservation and the Ministry of Non-conventional Energy Sources and Government of India projects