Anisha Madaan is an architect and urban designer with more than 4 years of work experience in India and France. She studied B.Arch. at Gateway College of Architecture & Design, Sonipat, Haryana, and Masters in Urban Design at CEPT University, Ahmedabad; which she completed with distinction. She was awarded the merit-based scholarship for studies at CEPT University and due to her meritorious performance during Masters, she had been sent to pursue the final semester at École Nationale Supérieure d'Architecture de Paris-Malaquais, France.

Before getting associated with Gateway Group of Institutions, Anisha worked as a Project Architect with prominent design practices in Delhi and Ahmedabad. During the practice, she has led many projects with HCP Design, Planning and Management Pvt. Ltd., Ahmedabad, ABRD Architects, and CoGroup LLP, Delhi. Some of the significant projects that she had worked on include, the South Asian University, Delhi, Jor Bagh Apartment, Delhi, Sabarmati Riverfront project, Applewoods Township, Local Area Plan Transit Oriented Zone, Ahmedabad and State Bank of India, Hyderabad. She was responsible for overseeing projects from inception to site implementation stages for government authorities, institutions, and private clients.

Her sophisticated aesthetic sense in addition to the ability to effectively address the representational and graphic skills, allows her to come up with innovative solutions for architectural academia. With her friendly approach to teaching, she makes sure that the students believe that they are simply equals to gain knowledge. Having an eye for detail and a deep understanding of architecture and urban development issues in the Indian and international context, she brings a unique direction to the academic sector.
