

Ar. Khurram Ali

Assistant Professor

Ar. Khurram Ali is a dynamic Practising architect and seasoned educator with over 12 years of comprehensive experience in architectural design, planning, and education. He holds a Bachelor of Architecture from DCRUST, Murthal, and a Postgraduate Diploma in Urban Planning and Development from IGNOU, New Delhi.

At Gateway College of Architecture & Design, where he has served since 2014, Ar. Khurram brings a hands-on, practice-oriented approach to architectural education. His teaching centers on Building Construction, where he skillfully bridges the gap between theory and real-world application—drawing from his rich field experience.

Beyond, he is actively engaged in professional practice and has successfully delivered over 150 architectural projects across Sonipat and the NCR, spanning residential, commercial, and industrial typologies. His work is distinguished by a strong commitment to sustainability, energy-efficient design, and green building practices.

Ar. Khurram dual expertise as both an educator and practitioner position him as a catalyst for developing future-ready architects—equipped with both technical proficiency and environmental sensitivity.
