

Ar. Sukanya Sharma

Qualifications:

Master in Architecture- School of Planning and Architecture, Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh (2022)

B. Arch- School of Built Environment & Design, Lingayas University, Haryana (2017)

Sukanya Sharma is an assistant professor, imparting knowledge of Architecture at Gateway College of Architecture and Design, Sonipat, and an accomplished conservation professional with expertise in heritage conservation and pursuing her research work in the field. She has contributed significantly to projects spanning Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Amritsar, and Madhya Pradesh. Sukanya's passion for preserving cultural legacies is evident in her diverse and impactful work across these regions. Recognized for her work in Jammu, she received honors from the Department of Tourism and Department of State Archives, Archaeology & Museum, Jammu and Kashmir. Her dedication earned her a scholarship for the Young Professional Forum - Emerging Skills for Heritage Conservation (2022) by the International Institute for Conservation and CCR, Rome. She has been meticulously working towards community awareness about their cultural heritage through organizing heritage walks, seminars, and outreach programs. She is an active member of national and international bodies – ICOMOS and INTACH