

Dr. Vikas Bhargaw is an Associate Professor in Finance as well as Head in the Department of Management Studies at Gateway Institute of Engineering and Technology.

He is having 18 years of vast experience in the field of teaching to management students at UG and PG courses at college and university level. He is Doctorate alumnus of Guru Jambheshwar University of Science and Technology, Hisar. He has completed MBA from M.D.U., Rohtak, whereas M. Com from GJUS&T, Hisar. He is NET and JRF qualified for Commerce and Management, both disciplines.

He advocates the comprehensive academic exposure for the students and argues to inculcate a rich and diverse learning experience among the students. He has published numerous research papers in various national and international journals of high repute. His professional outlook and strong will power makes him stand unique and his able leadership has always put the department ahead in every sphere of student learning. His constant support to students has helped students to brighten their career in corporate world or as an entrepreneur.

He has been associated as a member of PGBOS, at Ch. Devi Lal University, Sirsa and Om Sterling Global University, Hisar. He is also highly active in the social welfare activities as he is an active member of NGO's such as Paryatan - Hisar, Spread Smile Foundation – Sonipat etc.