

Ms. Arti Joshi is working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Management Studies at Gateway Education, Sonipat (Haryana). She is having 8 years of vast experience in the field of teaching to commerce and management students at UG and PG level. She has completed MBA from KUK., Kurukshetra, whereas M. Com from HNB Garhwal, Uttarakhand. She is NET qualified in Management, discipline. She has published several research papers and attended many national and international conferences.

With the dynamic personality and hardworking attitude, she is always keen to work in all the activities of the college. She has also been constant source of motivation and guidance to the students. With the efficient English-speaking skills and eagerness to develop the overall personality of the students apart from the academics, she has always extended her support to the students in every possible way. She is also highly active in the social welfare activities as she is an active member of NGOs such as Paryatan - Hisar, Spread Smile Foundation – Sonipat etc.