

At present, working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Management Studies at Gateway Education, Sonipat (Haryana). Prior to this, she was working with IITM Group of Institutions, Murthal (Sonipat, Haryana).

Jagjot Arneja has completed MBA with dual specialization i.e. Finance & International Business. She has also obtained a Masters degree in Commerce (M.Com ), having keen interest in finance, accounting and capital markets. Also qualified UGC – NET in the subject of Commerce.

With the dynamic personality and hardworking attitude, she is always keen to work in all the activities of the college. She has also been constant source of motivation and guidance to the students. With the efficient English speaking skills and eagerness to develop the overall personality of the students apart from the academics, she has always extended her support to the students in every possible way.