

Meghna Saxena is a dedicated Admission Counselor at Gateway College with 8 years of experience in the education sector. She specializes in guiding prospective students through the entire admissions process, from initial inquiry to final enrollment, ensuring a smooth and informed decision-making journey.

Meghna is skilled in counseling students and parents about academic programs, eligibility criteria, career prospects, and scholarship opportunities. Her strong communication skills and student-centric approach help build trust and long-term relationships with applicants and stakeholders.

With her extensive experience, organizational abilities, and commitment to excellence, Meghna Saxena plays a vital role in strengthening Gateway College's admissions outreach and student engagement efforts.