

Ms. Chetna Kapoor is currently working as assistant professor in Applied Sciences and Humanities Department of Gateway Education. Having Masters in Business Administration with specialization in Human Resource having more than 3 years of experience in Teaching, Behavioural Coaching and Soft Skills training. She is having expertise in dealing with the problems associated with behaviour. She has maintained and developed her forte in the field of Personality Development.

With the ability to withhold the interest of learners in the class, she mentors students for excellent proficiency in the English.

In gateway education she is the head coordinator of Communication Skills under Gateway vocational courses as well as running one of the club Gateway Times under Finishing School.