

Ms. Chetna Kapoor is Masters in Business Administration with specialization in Human Resource having more than 2 years of experience in Teaching, Behavioural Coaching and Soft Skills training. She is having expertise in dealing with the problems associated with behaviour. She has maintained and developed her forte in the field of Personality Development.

With the ability to withhold the interest of learners in the class, she mentor students for excellent proficiency in the English Language both in Writing and Speaking. She is brilliant in presentation and communication skills.