

"Hello, my name is Mr. Raj Kamal, and I am a skilled Library Restorer with 15 years of experience in book and manuscript restoration. My job involves restoring and preserving old and damaged books, manuscripts, and historical documents. I love working with rare materials and ensuring that important literary and cultural treasures remain intact for future readers and researchers. It's a fascinating field where history, art, and science come together!"