

MAY STORIES 2025

Namaste.

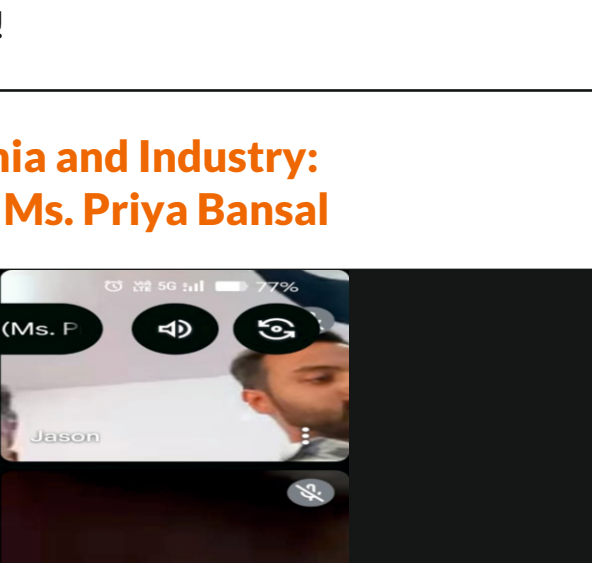

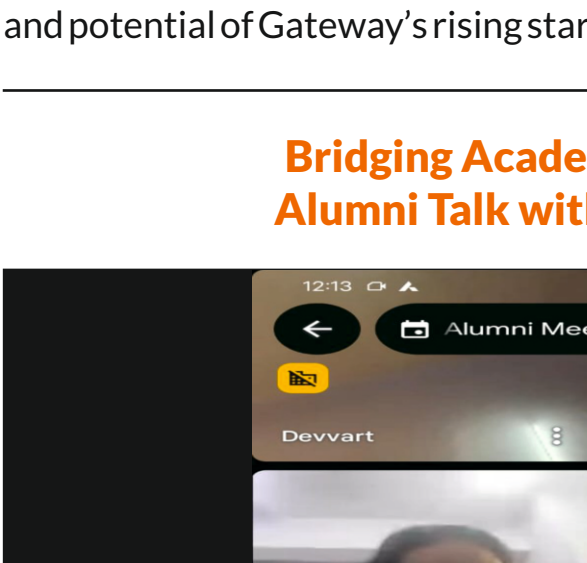

As May unfolds, it steps gently into our days like sunlight filtering through new leaves—warm, steady, and full of promise. The world hums with quiet confidence, alive with the richness of spring in full bloom. Gardens flourish, skies stretch wider, and the days grow long with golden light. May is a month of deepening—where the tender beginnings of April root themselves more firmly, maturing into steady growth. It is a time for tending, for continuing with care what we have begun, and for moving forward with trust in the unfolding path. In May, we are reminded that growth is not always sudden, but sure—that beauty thrives in both the blooming and the becoming. It invites us to align with nature’s wisdom: to stay present, nurture our intentions, and walk gently toward the future that is quietly taking shape.
