

Payal Gupta is an accomplished Admission Counselor with a rich experience of 4 years in the education sector. Currently serving as an Admission Counselor at Gateway Education, Sonipat (Haryana, India).

She has demonstrated a deep understanding of the college admissions process and a commitment to helping students navigate their academic journey.

She has been instrumental in guiding prospective students through the application process, providing valuable insights into academic programs, admission requirements, and financial aid options. She has effectively built and maintained relationships with high school counselors, parents, and other stakeholders to facilitate a seamless transition for students from the application stage to enrollment.

She obtained degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from University of Delhi. She has also obtained an MBA degree in HR Management and Marketing Management.